

Sanctions for Not Following the Self Sufficiency Plan

One (1) month or until the failure or refusal ceases, whichever is longer, for the entire assistance group the first time. Food assistance benefits may be reduced but no loss of Medicaid coverage.

Three (3) months or until the failure or refusal ceases, whichever is longer, for the entire assistance group the second failure. Food assistance benefits may be reduced but no loss of Medicaid coverage.

Six (6) months or until the failure or refusal ceases, whichever is longer, for the entire assistance group the third failure and subsequent failures. Food assistance benefits may be reduced. The sanctioned individual may lose Medicaid coverage but may regain it at anytime (even before the six months are up) if individual complies again with the work activity